

South Council Evidence from pupil voice Summer 1.

We put up a wind chime in our sensory reading garden. The sound of the bells is very soothing when the wind blows.

A working party of school councillors worked tirelessly in the garden to clear the weeds.

We wrote letters to ask for donations of plants, bulbs, seeds and soil and Mrs Albery delivered them to local businesses.